

GIORNATE CLASTA XII EDITION MAY 13-14, 2022

Firenze

Department of Education, Languages, Intercultures, Literatures, and Psychology

CLASTA Association is delighted to announce the annual conference on Child's Development of Language and Communication in typical and atypical populations

CALL FOR PAPERS

PROGRAM

Invited Speakers

Prof.ssa Judit Gervain
Università degli Studi di Padova

How early speech perception lays the foundations for language development

Prof. Roberto Filippi
University College London

The Psychology of Multilingualism: a 14-year research journey, from infancy to older age

Prof. George Georgiou
University of Alberta

*Cross-linguistic research in reading:
Implications for assessment and intervention*

Prof.ssa Donna Jo Napoli
Swarthmore College

Books for hearing and deaf children: Boxes or doors?

Thematic Symposia | Young Researcher Symposium
Poster Session | Books and Tools Session | Round Table

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

You can participate by sending an abstract
by April 11, 2022 to: giornateclasta@gmail.com

The conference welcomes abstracts relating to: typical and atypical development of communication and language in their different expressive forms; relationships among language and other developmental domains; the role of individual and environmental factors on communication and language development. Abstracts will be subjected to blind peer review.

Abstract acceptance is related to the payment of the registration fee for CLASTA 2022. At least the first author of a contribution has to pay the registration fee.

In preparing the abstract, please make use of the format provided at the site www.clasta.org will be assigned during the member assembly on May 13:

AWARDS

Laura D'Odorico Award - Best Thesis in Speech-Language Therapy 2020-21

Best Poster Award 2022

Best Ph.D. Thesis Award 2020 and 2021

Information about participation procedures are available on:
www.clasta.org

REGISTRATION FEE

Conference attendance is free for Clasta members regularly registered for 2022. Annual fee membership is: 60 euros (university staff, practitioners), 30 euros (undergraduate students, graduates, Ph.D. students, postgraduates). No-member fee amounts to 60 euros. More details for registration and fee payment are available on our website:
www.clasta.org

Scientific and Organizing Committee

Lucia Bigozzi (University of Firenze)

Chiara Pecini (University of Firenze)

Giuliana Pinto (University of Firenze)

Pasquale Rinaldi (CNR, Roma)

Sara Rinaldi (AULSS 6 Euganea, Padova)

Maja Roch (University of Padova)

Nicoletta Salerni (University of Milano - Bicocca)

Alessandra Sansavini (University of Bologna)

Christian Tarchi (University of Firenze)